

June 2005 Email Update

Dear Friends:

I have memorized Matthew 6:33 "But seek first His kingdom and His righteousness and all these things will be given to you as well" for a long time but I seldom see God's attention to details until I signed up to be on the mission field.

Let me give you an example of how I saw God's loving care for me this last week.

Every Friday evening I am involved in the leadership training here in Cuernavaca. These meetings usually run late from 7 pm to 10 pm. As a single woman I am always careful to not come home late especially when I am without my car.

Last Friday, the meeting especially ran late as I was discussing with the leader what materials I could possibly use to start a women's Bible study in Spanish as I am not familiar with the materials they use here to do home Bible studies. By the time, I was ready to say good-bye to everyone it was way past 10 pm. Little did I know that one of the single ladies with a kid decided to wait for me and voluntarily put it on her shoulders to drive me home even though my new apartment is not on her way home. I did not know that she had waited for me. She said, "Angie, it is my privilege to drive you home." I was so moved by her kindness especially knowing she is a single mom.

After I entered my apartment I thought to myself, "Oh Lord you are are a GOOD GOD. You do take care of your people. Thank you so much for showing me your goodness through Itzel's kindness this evening."

We do serve a GREAT & AWESOME GOD!!!!

Thank you for your love, prayers and support.

AV

PS- Attached is a photo of me and my German girlfriend in front of the Catholic church in downtown Cuernavaca.

